- October Expenses $4,107.40
- General Fund $10,544.95
- Expenses $24,854.09
- Net Income -$14,307.14

Old Business

- Seeking a new Treasurer for next school year
- Received a quote of $500/each to insure the trailers. Needs more research.
 - Noelle reached out to other Bands to find out what they do
 - Grants Pass is paid for by the School District
 - Tigard is under the Band Director's insurance
 - Most band programs don't know and are researching
 - Need to find out if we can insure it through the School District. Noelle will reach out the Finance Director.

New Business

- Rain jackets
 - Standard no insulation $60/each
 - More insulation $85/each
 - Custom printing $3.50
 - Approximately $4,000 - $5,500
 - These would be borrowed like uniforms
 - Can discuss increasing the fee to help cover the jackets
 - Vanessa thinks a little insulation is enough. It would be nice to keep students dry during warmups.
 - Josh suggested a uniform rack with a cover to protect them
 - Need to get a quote and size the entire band
 - Also look into getting raincoats for adult volunteers
- TNT Fireworks
 - Not as much profit
 - Need a lot of volunteers
 - Made about $3,000 last year
 - Some opposition because of fire danger
 - Can also volunteer at the Peninsula Optimist Fireworks stand
 - Cost of fireworks has significantly increased
 - Cheaper to purchase TNT fireworks at Walmart
- Motion: Josh moved to no longer do the TNT fireworks fundraiser; Noelle seconded; all in favor; none opposed; motion carries.

Upcoming Meetings

- Executive Board Meeting
 - Monday, November 29, 7pm, Loo Witt Room/Band Trailer during wreath sales
- Band Patrons General Meeting
 - Thursday, December 2, 7pm, Loo Witt Room

Other Business

Vanessa asked about the generator. Going to sell the two big ones and purchase one small one.

Upon Noelle's motion and Josh's second, the meeting was adjourned.
